

Records will show that the Hawaiian Islands are competitors through the mails.

TEEMING with live advertisements, and not one of them of the class a man would blush to lay before his family.

THE LOTTERY BILL.

The Louisiana House Passes it Over Nichols' Veto.

BISMARCK AND THE RIFLEMEN.

The Americans Call Upon the ex-Chancellor And Are Kindly Received—The Cheyenne Indians Are Uneasy.

BATON ROUGE, La., July 8.—The lottery bill passed the house over the governor's veto, says the New Orleans Times.

The Cheyenne Indians Are Uneasy.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—A Pioneer Press special from Pierre, S. D., says: News from the Cheyenne Indian reservation confirms the rumors of trouble at that point. About four thousand Indians are at the agency and created a disturbance to-day when they found no rations could be issued until Wednesday. The delay is caused by the fact that the cattle have not been driven from the range, thus leaving the Indians almost starving from Monday until tomorrow. The Indians also object to being crowded in the pens, and the census will be taken with great difficulty at the visit of the Indians is deplorable. Yesterday twelve died of consumption and lung fever and the physician had many more serious cases on his hands. Sickness prevails almost entirely among the semi-civilized.

Bismarck and the American Riflemen.

BREMEN, July 8.—The independent New York Herald reports in full uniform paid a visit to Bismarck to-day. William Weber expressed the thanks of the party for the privilege given them of visiting the great man to whom Germany owed her greatness.

Bismarck expressed pleasure at the visit and said he had always striven to maintain good relations with America. In his opinion it would have been foolish to quarrel for such a small quantity of arms. He had had therefore worked energetically to effect an amicable settlement. With the luncheon that followed the ex-chancellor was in a cheerful mood and related many interesting anecdotes of his life.

Destructive Storm at Winthrop, Me.

WINTHROP, Me., July 8.—At 8:30 to-night a very severe storm set in, accompanied by almost incessant thunder and lightning, together with rain. Many houses were more or less damaged. The bell of the Methodist church was blown off and fell upon Chester Shaw's house, which collapsed under the weight of the debris. Mrs. Shaw was fatally injured; other members of the family had a narrow escape. No other fatalities are reported, but several are badly injured.

A Lake Champlain Hotel Demolished.

THUR., July 8.—Reports received at the railroad station late to-night state that the Bluff Point hotel, on the shore of Lake Champlain, owned by the Delaware and Hudson railway company, was blown into the lake this afternoon and several lives lost. It is known that a severe storm amounting almost to a cyclone, raged in that vicinity to-day and the waves are all down and no particulars obtainable. It is reported that several persons were killed. A number of persons out in row boats are lost. Sixteen or more are said to be missing.

Lake General Passenger Agent Burdick, of the Delaware and Hudson, left here after midnight for Bluff Point. He said the latest information was that while the hotel was considerably damaged, only one life was lost. The storm is of extreme severity.

Passengers on the train which reached here at 2 a. m. from Montreal say a storm was general from the P. O. out to Whitehall. Many houses at Rouses Point and other towns along the lake were destroyed. Bluff Point hotel, they state, is seriously damaged and several persons are missing. One guest, name unknown, who was out in a row boat, was drowned.

In Favor of Catching and Hooker.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The committee on elections has reported to the two Mississippi contested elections. Hill vs. Catching from the Third district; Verchase vs. Hooker from the Seventh. The decision was in favor of the sitting Democratic members Catching and Hooker.

Brigadier-General Benjamin H. Grierson has been placed on the retired list.

A Mob in Bow Street.

LONDON, July 8.—Another disorderly mob gathered in Bow street to-night, but the mounted police prevented order.

The Protest Against McKelvey.

SHEPHERD, July 8.—The mayor has called a meeting for Monday next to protest against the McKelvey bill.

A Migrant in Hook.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., July 8.—Edward M. Doyle, charged with bigamy, and under arrest here, has consented to go back to Portland, Ogn., with Detective Day.

The Locked-out Clock Makers.

NEW YORK, July 8.—With the thermometer in the 90's and under a scorching sun, about seven thousand locked out clock makers paraded through the principal streets this afternoon. They were armed with signs and banners, and were in Union square Secretary Garrison delivered an address in which he said he hoped the men would be of good cheer and use no violence for they were about to meet with success. The projected mass meeting for this evening was abandoned.

Kennedy Beats Potts.

LONDON, July 8.—Potts, the American amateur scuba champion, competed with Kennedy in the first heat for diamond sculls at the Henley regatta to-day. Kennedy won the heat by four lengths.

Attorney Hewitt, of Portland, Killed.

PORTLAND, Ogn., July 8.—O. H. Hewitt, a well-known attorney, was shot and killed to-day by Saloonkeeper Charles Belgrade. Belgrade then retired to his own room and suicided by cutting his throat. Belgrade's wife is suing for a divorce. Hewitt was hit by a bullet in both men were out driving last night. A quarrel this morning resulted in the tragedy.

Arms for Central America.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—It was rumored within the past week that the Spencer, Winchester & Remington arms company had received large orders for small arms from Honduras and Guatemala, and Salvador has been buying a considerable quantity of powder from the Valencia Powder company, of San Francisco. Salvador only a short time before a death of 10,000 stand of Enfield rifles. General Eula is now distributing these arms among the people of Salvador and has ordered of the Congre- nout Cartridge Manufacturing company 2,000,000 rounds of ammunition.

THE SALT LAKE CITY.

tion. Both Americans and Europeans are experiencing a sense of insecurity at the unsettled state of affairs, and a like feeling pervades both Guatemala and Honduras. The British, German, French, Spanish and Italian ministers have all notified their respective governments, and it will not be surprising to see men-of-war make visits at an early date to Central American waters.

Grand Lodge B. P. O. Elks.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The grand lodge, B. P. O. Elks, in conformity with the order of Judge Lawrence, met to-day and elected grand lodge officers. Resolutions were adopted declaring the meeting in session at present in Cleveland, does not represent nor is it a part of the order, and any and all persons purporting to relate to the order in any way are repudiated and said assembly declared clandestine.

A Declaration of principles was also adopted setting forth that the primary object of the Elks was the establishment of a fund for the relief of members of the order in distress.

With this in mind, the committee on resolutions and the committee on finance, and the committee on the order in any way are repudiated and said assembly declared clandestine.

A DENVER BARBER.

Suspects His Wife of Infidelity and She Justifies His Suspicion.

DENVER, July 8.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—August Crisman, a tonsorial artist of middle age, for some time has been suspecting his wife of infidelity, and that J. Hughes, a brother artist, also suspected Mrs. Crisman has passed the fourth mile post in life, is far from handsome, but passion's flame still burns fiercely. It is said Hughes recently drove Crisman from his own house because he appeared there at an untimely moment. Last night Crisman and an amateur detective shadowed the wife and Hughes to the former's room and satisfied their curiosity and Crisman's fears, then summoning a policeman the trio pounced upon the couple and arrested them. In the police court to-day, when asked to plead, Hughes said not guilty, but the married couple were committed by pleading guilty. Hughes then became excited, and declared she could not understand English. The justice, however, believed she knew what she was there for, and placed both under bonds for trial Thursday morning.

SUICIDE AT AMERICAN FORK.

A Wandering Madman Takes Morphine, Being Convinced That Life is a Failure.

AMERICAN FORK, July 8.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—Emil Husserl, a musician by profession and living with the Wadswell company, committed suicide this afternoon by taking morphine. It was not discovered until too late to save him. A letter was found showing the taking off to be deliberate and no cause was shown, any more than that life was a failure. He asked in his letter to be buried here as he had no friends or relatives in this country. Another letter was found sealed with a request written on the envelope that he be left with him.

Purchasing Pacific Coast Breweries.

DENVER, Colo., July 8.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—John C. Keegan, an attorney of this city, who has been on the Pacific coast the past three weeks examining titles to breweries there, has returned.

He reports that California breweries have been purchased by his clients, wealthy English capitalists, the same parties who purchased four breweries at Peoria, one at Detroit and one at Wilmington, Ill., paying therefor $1,500,000. Also one at Minneapolis, one at La Crosse for $1,200,000.

Drowned in Gunnison River.

DELTA, Colo., July 8.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—Allan Wise and Hugh McKean, sheep men, attempted to ford the Gunnison river near here yesterday. McKean and two horses were drowned and the wagon swept away. Wise was saved after great exertion. McKean's body has not yet been found.

National Tube Works.

PITTSBURGH, July 8.—The National Tube works, McKeesport, Pa., has refused to sign the amalgamated scale but are willing to pay wages. The men decline to accept it. Reports from all points in the plant is idle and 40,000 men are out of employment.

Washington Park Races.

CHICAGO, July 8.—The Drexel stakes was the event of the day at to-day's races. It was captured by the crack California horse Santiago. A fatal accident marred the sport in the race, one of the jockeys being killed by falling off his horse.

Summaries: Three-fourths of a mile, maiden two-year-olds—Vollera won, Miriam second, Glen Rush third. Time—1:10.

CMile and one sixteenth, three-year-olds and upwards—Robispiere won, Playway second, Glen Rush third. Time—1:40.

Drexel stakes for three-year-olds, one mile—Santiago first, Blarney Stone second, English Lady third. Time—1:45.

Noretta fell entering the stretch and rolled over Abbie's, her rider, breaking his neck.

Mile and seventy yards—Heron won, Prophecy second, Lizzie B. third. Time—1:35.

Three-fourths of a mile, heats. First heat—Lake View won, Delmar second, Pat Sheedy third. Time—1:14.

Second heat—New won, Pat Sheedy second, Delmar third. Time—1:44.

The Heated Term.

CHICAGO, July 8.—The hot spell was broken in this city this evening by a delightful cool breeze which swept down from the north. The signal service officer says this is the effect of the big storm in the northwest yesterday, and that the excessive hot spell is ended for the present at least. Reports from all points in Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, Eastern Kansas, Ohio, Michigan, and Kentucky report excessive heat to-day and many prostrations. Patches above. A score of prostrations and one death from excessive heat are reported there to-night. Richmond, Virginia, reports the hottest day of the year, with the mercury at 101 in the shade.

ABSOLUTELY FALSE.

Minister Tsui Denies to Our Own Correspondent

THE ALLEGED INTERVIEW.

With Him Concerning China's Intention to Retaliate Against the United States for the Exclusion of Chinese.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—The Chinese minister assured me to-day that the alleged interview with him in a New York paper, in which he is represented as saying that China purposes retaliating against America on account of the passage of the exclusion act, is wholly without foundation. The Chinese government, he says, is hoping that Congress will abrogate the exclusion act and allow the restriction treaty which was pending at the time to be ratified by the two countries. China, he adds, is not thinking of retaliating upon the Americans there nor is there any likelihood that she will.

A Concluding Paragraph.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

PAUL, July 8.—[By cable to the New York Herald.] Howlett's coach magnet was taken to Versailles yesterday by Mr. Rogers, who was party consisted of Miss Cunningham, Miss Julia Schenker, Mr. Frederick Thompson, Mr. T. Morgan Stewart, Mr. W. H. Stewart, Jr., Count Diodora, Mrs. E. D. Rogers, Miss L. M. Montague, and Mrs. W. H. Dodge. The coach was taken to St. Germain by Mr. H. Ridgeway, wife, whose party included Mr. and Mrs. Tiffany, Dr. and Mrs. Shattuck, and Mrs. Shattuck, Miss Delaville, and Miss Schenker.

National Educational Association.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—An almost perfect day ushered in the National Educational association convention. The largest crowd ever known in the history of the association is present; several thousand were in the city before noon yesterday. The trains last night and this morning were all crowded and school teachers are being crowded out of the city. The association is present; several thousand were in the city before noon yesterday. The trains last night and this morning were all crowded and school teachers are being crowded out of the city. The association is present; several thousand were in the city before noon yesterday. The trains last night and this morning were all crowded and school teachers are being crowded out of the city.

The Closing Session of the National Educational Association.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—The closing session of the National Educational association was held this morning in the hall of the house of representatives; a couple of reports were read and addressed by the association. The closing session of the National Educational association was held this morning in the hall of the house of representatives; a couple of reports were read and addressed by the association. The closing session of the National Educational association was held this morning in the hall of the house of representatives; a couple of reports were read and addressed by the association.

A Strange Case of Paralysis.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

READING, Pa., July 8.—Detective William T. Lyon was acquitted two weeks ago of the charge of extorting $10 from a woman to settle a case in court. At the trial he refused to take the stand, offering to affirm in this language: "I hope that God will paralyze me if I took that $10 gold piece." When Lyon appeared on the stand yesterday, he was unable to talk even in a whisper. It is thought that his vocal organs are paralyzed.

D. P. Wierington Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—P. D. Wierington, candidate of the American party for the presidency in the last campaign, died at Oakland yesterday.

The Financial Panic in Uruguay.

MONTVIDEO, Uruguay, July 8.—There is no abatement in the financial panic. In order to stop the run on the banks, the government issued a decree making yesterday a national holiday. One million five hundred thousand dollars in gold is on its way from Buenos Ayres to Montevideo. Upon its arrival, the financial distress will be relieved.

A Times Dispatch on the Crisis.

LONDON, July 8.—The Times prints a dispatch dated Buenos Ayres, with reference to the financial crisis in Uruguay. It states that the Uruguayan legislature met in special session Sunday to consider what course to pursue in view of the suspension of specie payments by the national bank. A bill was passed which will promulgate at once, sanctioning the suspension of specie payments for six months. This action has alarmed the merchants and a deputation was sent upon the finance minister. The minister assured the deputation that the government had no intention of resorting to forced currency. The government fears the people will not accept paper currency but desire to see the nation's bank if possible by the present intermediate measure. If the effort to assist the bank fails it will probably be forced to liquidate.

Wild Rumors About Sealers.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 8.—The statements in American papers dated Victoria that schooners are arriving here and at Maple Bay for the purpose of resistance to American revenue cutters in Behring sea are wholly without foundation. The sealers generally are of the opinion that no sealers will be made this year, and have gone into Behring sea in large numbers. There is a rumor that the English war cruisers lately arrived in port will go into Behring sea for the protection of British sealers, but this has not been confirmed.

The Portland Stakes.

LONDON, July 8.—Orville won the Portland stakes at Leicester to-day, Peter Flower second, Reverend third.

Illinois Central Saving Plan.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Concerning the published rumors that the officers of the Illinois Central railway company are seeking to induce employees to invest their savings in the securities of that corporation, President Fish said to-day that the company has no stock for sale, but proposes to assist any of its officers or employees to buy one share at a time at a fair market price, the purchaser to pay in sums of not less than five dollars. On these sums interest is to be credited, and when a share is paid for by him, if he wishes, begin the purchase of another. "It is hoped to enlist every frugal person in any way connected with the railroad as a partner on a basis of the utmost liberality to the small proprietor. It is not proposed to form a savings bank or benevolent association, the experience of the company being that men prefer to

SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Conference Report on the Silver Bill

IS THE CHIEF TOPIC OF DEBATE.

Why Will Vest Vote Against the Report—Sherman's Defense of It—Voices States His Objections.

CLEVELAND, July 8.—A tremendous wind storm from the northwest struck the city this evening and did great damage to property. Freight cars were overturned on the railroads and the great hoisting machines at the ore docks completely destroyed. Many houses were badly damaged and the losses were aggregated $200,000. The same storm did much damage at Canton, but no one was injured.

A North Dakota Cyclone.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—A Jamestown, N. D., special to the Pioneer Press says that yesterday morning a hurricane did great damage in James River valley. John Fosberg, a farmer near Jamestown, was killed and his wife and baby fatally injured. In the southern part of the county in a strip ten miles long and four miles wide the crops were annihilated. The hail was terrible and 5,000 acres of grain destroyed.

A FATAL FRENCH DUEL.

Two Trained Monkeys in a Traveling Circus Killed Each Other on the Field of Honor.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

PARIS, July 8.—[By Duplay's cable.]—A duel took place close to Paris Sunday between two acrobats belonging to a traveling circus. The men quarreled and resolved to fight in the ring after the performance. The conditions were two shots each at twenty-five paces. The weapons were pistols, but neither combatant was wounded. The duellists and seconds had overlooked the presence of a couple of trained monkeys who sat munching nuts during the affair of honor. These animals had been taught to ride around the ring and to perform various tricks. They were now clear initiated the proceedings and gravely loaded the weapons. They then turned to the spectators and began to perform. Both fell dead, the wadding of the old-fashioned pistols acting as bullets.

An Astonishing Story of Miraculous Healing.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—A young man is said to have become suddenly endowed with miraculous power to cure all sorts of physical infirmities. He uses neither incantations, hypnotism nor drugs, but simply places his feet against those of the patient and makes movements with his hands over the parts afflicted, thereby effecting a complete cure. His popularity is increasing so fast that he makes no charge for his services, but simply says after the cures are completed, "Go in peace; you are cured." His power is said to be so great that three never fail to expel the demon. The blind and the lame are in crowds. He exercises his power at certain places in St. Paul, and nothing will tempt him to break his rule.

A Strange Case of Paralysis.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

READING, Pa., July 8.—Detective William T. Lyon was acquitted two weeks ago of the charge of extorting $10 from a woman to settle a case in court. At the trial he refused to take the stand, offering to affirm in this language: "I hope that God will paralyze me if I took that $10 gold piece." When Lyon appeared on the stand yesterday, he was unable to talk even in a whisper. It is thought that his vocal organs are paralyzed.

D. P. Wierington Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—P. D. Wierington, candidate of the American party for the presidency in the last campaign, died at Oakland yesterday.

The Financial Panic in Uruguay.

MONTVIDEO, Uruguay, July 8.—There is no abatement in the financial panic. In order to stop the run on the banks, the government issued a decree making yesterday a national holiday. One million five hundred thousand dollars in gold is on its way from Buenos Ayres to Montevideo. Upon its arrival, the financial distress will be relieved.

A Times Dispatch on the Crisis.

LONDON, July 8.—The Times prints a dispatch dated Buenos Ayres, with reference to the financial crisis in Uruguay. It states that the Uruguayan legislature met in special session Sunday to consider what course to pursue in view of the suspension of specie payments by the national bank. A bill was passed which will promulgate at once, sanctioning the suspension of specie payments for six months. This action has alarmed the merchants and a deputation was sent upon the finance minister. The minister assured the deputation that the government had no intention of resorting to forced currency. The government fears the people will not accept paper currency but desire to see the nation's bank if possible by the present intermediate measure. If the effort to assist the bank fails it will probably be forced to liquidate.

Wild Rumors About Sealers.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 8.—The statements in American papers dated Victoria that schooners are arriving here and at Maple Bay for the purpose of resistance to American revenue cutters in Behring sea are wholly without foundation. The sealers generally are of the opinion that no sealers will be made this year, and have gone into Behring sea in large numbers. There is a rumor that the English war cruisers lately arrived in port will go into Behring sea for the protection of British sealers, but this has not been confirmed.

The Portland Stakes.

LONDON, July 8.—Orville won the Portland stakes at Leicester to-day, Peter Flower second, Reverend third.

Illinois Central Saving Plan.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Concerning the published rumors that the officers of the Illinois Central railway company are seeking to induce employees to invest their savings in the securities of that corporation, President Fish said to-day that the company has no stock for sale, but proposes to assist any of its officers or employees to buy one share at a time at a fair market price, the purchaser to pay in sums of not less than five dollars. On these sums interest is to be credited, and when a share is paid for by him, if he wishes, begin the purchase of another. "It is hoped to enlist every frugal person in any way connected with the railroad as a partner on a basis of the utmost liberality to the small proprietor. It is not proposed to form a savings bank or benevolent association, the experience of the company being that men prefer to

SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Conference Report on the Silver Bill

IS THE CHIEF TOPIC OF DEBATE.

Why Will Vest Vote Against the Report—Sherman's Defense of It—Voices States His Objections.

CLEVELAND, July 8.—A tremendous wind storm from the northwest struck the city this evening and did great damage to property. Freight cars were overturned on the railroads and the great hoisting machines at the ore docks completely destroyed. Many houses were badly damaged and the losses were aggregated $200,000. The same storm did much damage at Canton, but no one was injured.

A North Dakota Cyclone.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—A Jamestown, N. D., special to the Pioneer Press says that yesterday morning a hurricane did great damage in James River valley. John Fosberg, a farmer near Jamestown, was killed and his wife and baby fatally injured. In the southern part of the county in a strip ten miles long and four miles wide the crops were annihilated. The hail was terrible and 5,000 acres of grain destroyed.

A FATAL FRENCH DUEL.

Two Trained Monkeys in a Traveling Circus Killed Each Other on the Field of Honor.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

PARIS, July 8.—[By Duplay's cable.]—A duel took place close to Paris Sunday between two acrobats belonging to a traveling circus. The men quarreled and resolved to fight in the ring after the performance. The conditions were two shots each at twenty-five paces. The weapons were pistols, but neither combatant was wounded. The duellists and seconds had overlooked the presence of a couple of trained monkeys who sat munching nuts during the affair of honor. These animals had been taught to ride around the ring and to perform various tricks. They were now clear initiated the proceedings and gravely loaded the weapons. They then turned to the spectators and began to perform. Both fell dead, the wadding of the old-fashioned pistols acting as bullets.

An Astonishing Story of Miraculous Healing.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—A young man is said to have become suddenly endowed with miraculous power to cure all sorts of physical infirmities. He uses neither incantations, hypnotism nor drugs, but simply places his feet against those of the patient and makes movements with his hands over the parts afflicted, thereby effecting a complete cure. His popularity is increasing so fast that he makes no charge for his services, but simply says after the cures are completed, "Go in peace; you are cured." His power is said to be so great that three never fail to expel the demon. The blind and the lame are in crowds. He exercises his power at certain places in St. Paul, and nothing will tempt him to break his rule.

A Strange Case of Paralysis.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

READING, Pa., July 8.—Detective William T. Lyon was acquitted two weeks ago of the charge of extorting $10 from a woman to settle a case in court. At the trial he refused to take the stand, offering to affirm in this language: "I hope that God will paralyze me if I took that $10 gold piece." When Lyon appeared on the stand yesterday, he was unable to talk even in a whisper. It is thought that his vocal organs are paralyzed.

D. P. Wierington Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—P. D. Wierington, candidate of the American party for the presidency in the last campaign, died at Oakland yesterday.

The Financial Panic in Uruguay.

MONTVIDEO, Uruguay, July 8.—There is no abatement in the financial panic. In order to stop the run on the banks, the government issued a decree making yesterday a national holiday. One million five hundred thousand dollars in gold is on its way from Buenos Ayres to Montevideo. Upon its arrival, the financial distress will be relieved.

A Times Dispatch on the Crisis.

LONDON, July 8.—The Times prints a dispatch dated Buenos Ayres, with reference to the financial crisis in Uruguay. It states that the Uruguayan legislature met in special session Sunday to consider what course to pursue in view of the suspension of specie payments by the national bank. A bill was passed which will promulgate at once, sanctioning the suspension of specie payments for six months. This action has alarmed the merchants and a deputation was sent upon the finance minister. The minister assured the deputation that the government had no intention of resorting to forced currency. The government fears the people will not accept paper currency but desire to see the nation's bank if possible by the present intermediate measure. If the effort to assist the bank fails it will probably be forced to liquidate.

Wild Rumors About Sealers.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 8.—The statements in American papers dated Victoria that schooners are arriving here and at Maple Bay for the purpose of resistance to American revenue cutters in Behring sea are wholly without foundation. The sealers generally are of the opinion that no sealers will be made this year, and have gone into Behring sea in large numbers. There is a rumor that the English war cruisers lately arrived in port will go into Behring sea for the protection of British sealers, but this has not been confirmed.

The Portland Stakes.

LONDON, July 8.—Orville won the Portland stakes at Leicester to-day, Peter Flower second, Reverend third.

Illinois Central Saving Plan.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Concerning the published rumors that the officers of the Illinois Central railway company are seeking to induce employees to invest their savings in the securities of that corporation, President Fish said to-day that the company has no stock for sale, but proposes to assist any of its officers or employees to buy one share at a time at a fair market price, the purchaser to pay in sums of not less than five dollars. On these sums interest is to be credited, and when a share is paid for by him, if he wishes, begin the purchase of another. "It is hoped to enlist every frugal person in any way connected with the railroad as a partner on a basis of the utmost liberality to the small proprietor. It is not proposed to form a savings bank or benevolent association, the experience of the company being that men prefer to

SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Conference Report on the Silver Bill

IS THE CHIEF TOPIC OF DEBATE.

Why Will Vest Vote Against the Report—Sherman's Defense of It—Voices States His Objections.

CLEVELAND, July 8.—A tremendous wind storm from the northwest struck the city this evening and did great damage to property. Freight cars were overturned on the railroads and the great hoisting machines at the ore docks completely destroyed. Many houses were badly damaged and the losses were aggregated $200,000. The same storm did much damage at Canton, but no one was injured.

A North Dakota Cyclone.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—A Jamestown, N. D., special to the Pioneer Press says that yesterday morning a hurricane did great damage in James River valley. John Fosberg, a farmer near Jamestown, was killed and his wife and baby fatally injured. In the southern part of the county in a strip ten miles long and four miles wide the crops were annihilated. The hail was terrible and 5,000 acres of grain destroyed.

A FATAL FRENCH DUEL.

Two Trained Monkeys in a Traveling Circus Killed Each Other on the Field of Honor.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

PARIS, July 8.—[By Duplay's cable.]—A duel took place close to Paris Sunday between two acrobats belonging to a traveling circus. The men quarreled and resolved to fight in the ring after the performance. The conditions were two shots each at twenty-five paces. The weapons were pistols, but neither combatant was wounded. The duellists and seconds had overlooked the presence of a couple of trained monkeys who sat munching nuts during the affair of honor. These animals had been taught to ride around the ring and to perform various tricks. They were now clear initiated the proceedings and gravely loaded the weapons. They then turned to the spectators and began to perform. Both fell dead, the wadding of the old-fashioned pistols acting as bullets.

An Astonishing Story of Miraculous Healing.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—A young man is said to have become